Day 3: Kalpa - Nako - Tabbo

From Kalpa, we head to Tabbo another beautiful village. Again, this route has some fantastic sightseeing opportunities, and the famous ones are the Nako Himachal Pradesh Lake and the Gue Monastery. The variety of scenic beauty and the brownish mountains is to be witnessed here. You may experience here some slight drizzles on the way.

Day 4: Tabbo - Kaza

Another busy day, where on the way you get to visit Dhankar, the confluence of Parvati and Spiti River, the Mudh Village, and the Pin Valley National Park. The overnight stay is arranged at Kaza. Tabo Himachal Pradesh is a beautiful ancient Buddhist village located in the lap of the Himalayas. Tabo Spiti is named the 'Ajanta of the Himalayas.'

Day 5: Kaza Local Sightseeing

Today we will visit some of the highest inhabited villages in the world. After a cozy night in your comforters, wake up to a beautiful morning in Kaza. Though small, the village has ample sightseeing options. Today is the records breaking day. We wil visit the highest village in India, Komic, which has a motorable road. We will drive today to Langza. A giant painted Buddha statue stands in front of the new monastery on a hill above the settlement. The Buddha is shown contacting the soil in the figure, which faces west and looks out over the Spiti valley. The Geological Survey of India considers Spiti one of the world's most fossil-rich regions. Fossils reaching back a few hundred million years have been discovered in isolated villages of Himachal Pradesh's Lahaul and Spiti valleys. Now banned for tourists to buy fossils by the Government of Himachal Pradesh. We will finally send a postcard from Hikkim to our loved ones from the highest Post office in the world. Don't forget to bring some stamps and postcards.

Day 6: Kaza - Chandrtal Lake

Morning check out from hotel & proceed to Chandrtal. From Kaza to Chandrtal is a breathtaking transition from the high altitude desert of Spiti to the emerald alpine waters of Lahaul. The drive takes 4 to 5hrs. After arrival check in campsite. Post lunch leisure time at campsite or near Chandrtal Lake. Overnight stay at Chandrtal.
